

George Joseph Wino

February 16, 1928 - December 15, 2016

George Joseph Wino of Naples, Florida, passed away peacefully on December 15, 2016. Born on February 16, 1928 in New York City, he was the son of the late Alexander and Julia Wino. He was preceded in death by his wife Joyce Anzmann Wino, to whom he was married for 62 years.

Prior to moving to Naples 22 years ago, George and his family resided in Bethesda, MD and Larchmont, NY where he was an avid sailor and active in community organizations. A graduate of Fordham Preparatory School in New York and Columbia University where he earned BS and MA degrees, George also served in the National Guard and the US Army during the Korean War, achieving the rank of Master Sergeant. He then developed a career as a well-respected economist and taught engineering at Columbia University. He was employed by US Economics, which later became part of Merrill Lynch, and as Chief Economist with the American Textile Manufacturers Institute.

George was known for his deep and thoughtful intellect and his sharp wit, always ready with a smile and often a funny comment. His quiet influence made a substantive impact on every organization he joined. He will be remembered as a loving husband, father, father-in-law, grandfather, uncle and son.

He is survived by his 2 daughters M. Barbara Keating, Lynn Nebel (Reynold), 5 grandchildren, and 5 nieces and nephews.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated on December 27, 2016 at 1:00 P.M. in St Leo the Great Catholic Church in Bonita Springs, followed by a private burial.

Online condolences may be offered at www.shikanyfuneralhome.com.
