“ A sweet beautiful person who was loved by many. We were partners in crime mostly in our teens, we laughed so hard together. Gone too soon, I am sure you will be missed by so many.

“ When Glenda & I were 14 yrs old my mom drove us to McCormick Pl in Chicago & dropped us off to see Cat Stevens, must of been 1973.

We had so much fun pulling pranks. Like ordering pizza and then when the delivery kid came to the door us little girls would say “oh we’re home alone, we didn’t order anything because we have no money”! Sometimes he’d leave the pizza and we’d SCORE! 🤪 Of course this was before cell phones, caller ID & paying over the phone!

Gosh, she was wonderful!
