“ My dear friend Glenda.. I can't quite grasp her passing. I am so thankful that we spoke for hours before Xmas. We laughed and laughed. I can hear her voice right this minute. I sent her a Xmas card and she said, "Heck with a card, I'm just gonna call Karen and see what she's been doin." She was so upbeat talking about John, their horses, their daughters and their grandkids. We were gabbing just like we were still in our 20's working at Maas Bros, Tampa and going out to Happy Hour. Our lives changed and we moved on but we still kept in touch. Last thing she said was, "We need to start calling each other more often" and I said I need to come down for a visit soon. So... life is so short, isn't it? All I can say, is she was a really great and true friend to me in Tampa, across the miles and through the years. She will be so missed. She was a grand lady. I am unable to come down for her memorial but we will make a donation to the Hospice Centre as suggested. Condolences and much love to John, Amanda, Tiffany and all of the family.
Love always, Karen Kelso Bright and Bill Bright
