

Glenn A. Holmes

December 3, 1950 - February 13, 2016

Glenn A. Holmes of Kingston, MA, residing in Ft. Myers, FL, died unexpectedly on February 13, 2016 at the age of 65.

Retired, he was a State Park Director, DCR, Massachusetts, having worked at Wompatuck State Park in Hingham and Plymouth Park District.

Glenn was the son of Barbara G. Holmes of Kingston and the late Wallace C. Holmes; brother of Julie H. Brown of Plympton and the late Gail Alfieri and Janet L. Cook; uncle of Mason P. Cook. His son, Andrew P. Holmes, resides in Sterling with Glenn's three grandchildren, Laney, Gwendolyn and Teddy. His longtime friend and companion, Pamela Allison, resides in Ft. Myers, FL.

Arrangements are private.

Tribute Wall

PA

“ I was so very sad to discover 2 people who were so much apart of my growing up in the 70s are not with us anymore. Glen was a very special man, a kind soul annd person and maybe even my first love, you. Glenn will always be someone i will remember with wonderful memories of youth and young love. Gail my friend.... I am so sad you left so soon. I will always hold you both in my heart with love. My condolences to their mom Barbara who always greeted us with a smile, and I remember at the time little sister Julie. With love PB

pam - March 08, 2025 at 10:11 PM

“ Glenn A. Holmes

October 09, 2023 at 03:40 AM

DH

“ Our thoughts & prayers are with you & your family Glenn was a very special guy who took the time to care about people those he knew & those he met for the very first time a pleasure to work with & know personally he shall be missed with sympathy
Dennis

Dennis hunt - March 05, 2016 at 07:55 PM