“ What a shock to learn about Hals passing. We spoke around Thanksgiving and as always shared memories and good times. We have known each other since 6th grade, shared a house together and participated in juvenile misadventures. He will be missed.

Hal the news of your passing were both shocking and sad. You will always be in our hearts and in our prayers. We will miss your sense of humor and your excellent bad Spanish (as you used to call it)
Your friends from Mexico:
Cristina & Javier, Lucy & Enrique, Ma. Hilda & German, Paty & Joe, Oscar, Alejandro, Gladys, Silvia, Alejandra, Lourdes, Rosy, and all my nieces and nephews.
After 20 years of memories the least I can wish you is to fly high and live happily ever after.

A better friend has never shared my life. Howie and I met in college. I signed his sheet on the wall looking for possible riders to Florida for Spring break freshman year. We share the same last name and for that reason he called me first, and the rest is wonderful history. We very well may have been related somewhere back in history, but we became real time brothers shortly after meeting. He was such a big part of my life that I truly feel half empty right now and it's horrible. Hal never hurt a soul and I never heard him say a bad word about anyone. He is truly missed and I know he's waiting for us to join him someday. Till then Brother, thank you for sharing your life with us.

There wasn't a better friend than Hal. We might during our college years which was long ago. He remained great friends since that time. How always kept in touch with a phone call from time to time during which we had many laugh, reliving our friendship over the years. I think that you often friend and miss those conversations. God bless you and we'll meet again.
