“ Aunt Hazel, I will always remember you from your days of traveling. My brothers n I wanted to be the first to see the postcard or package we received from some far away land. As a child I remember going to these really big buildings in Minnesota were Aunt Hazel worked and was in charge. Little did I know at the time. You were always very gracious and fun to talked with always letting me hear my Moms voice in yours. My visits in flordia I will hold forever. Hazel n Mom take care. Keith
