“ Hazel was a wonderful lady, even though her body gave out her spirit was always strong. She has been dearly missed since she left the Palms. Your family is in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Dear McKenna and Midera Family,
You have our deepest sympathy and our prayers. Hazel was such a lovely woman and a dear friend. We spent many an evening together at The Palms watching Wheel of Fortune and Jeopardy, sipping a glass of wine and sharing stories. I was always so grateful for her wisdom and kindness. We hope you find comfort knowing Hazel was loved and admired by many people in our community.
God bless you,
Laurie and Fred Faust

“ Dear McKenna & Midera Families,
We are sorry for all of you on the passing of your Mom, Grandma & our friend Hazel. Our brother Bobby had told me a week or so ago that he was over to see Hazel and we were all glad to know that. We will all miss Hazel and remember her as the lovely lady she was. I would loved to have seen the look on Ray's face when he welcomed his beloved partner home! All the best to all of you in the days & weeks ahead & God Bless Hazel, Ray and all of your family.
Sincerely,
Ray Murphy & Family
