“ Captain Morgan was the perfect submarine commander, Intelligent, personable, tough, committed to his men and mission. He guided many lives in a positive direction, mine included. I will remember him with respect and admiration forever. Skipper, Shipmate and Friend.

“ Once on a midnight watch on the Hale, I was assisting Capt Morgan on the conn and he asked me, "Petty Officer Primm, what's the distance to the horizon from periscope height?" I thought for a moment and said, "I think it's about five miles," and he said, "Nope. It's 4.2 nautical miles." I replied, "Thank you sir; I will remember that." And so I have, and Capt Morgan as well. You paid attention to him because he was smart and tough, but fair. Not to mention, the man changed my life.

"A fair wind and a following sea" to Capt Morgan.

*Sincerely,
Glenn A. Primm, QM2 (SS),

“ Dear Sue and Family,
Our deepest condolences on your loss. Hank was a wonderful friend, class mate and a gentleman of unparalleled dignity and integrity. We spent three years together at MIT, where we shared a wonderful academic and social experience with our young families. In fact, Hank and I collaborated on our joint Masters thesis, and I feel indebted to him to this day. We last spoke at our USNA 55th reunion and shared some fond memories. Our prayers are with you all and may Hank be embraced by our Lord in eternal peace.
Sincerely,

“ Hank was a fine nuclear sub commander and a good friend as a second set striker at the USNA and in Rota, Spain and at McDonnell Douglas in St. Louis. They should dim the lights at the USNA in his honor. Sue, I will be thinking of you at this difficult time and you and your family will be in my prayers.
