

Jack Pavlovich

July 17, 1939 - October 13, 2020

Jack Pavlovich 81, of Naples, FL died peacefully on Tuesday, October 13, 2020 at his residence. He was born and raised in Lakewood, OH. He was the son of the late John F. and Mary M. (née Sepesi) Pavlovich. Jack was a long-time resident of Westlake, OH before making Naples his home for the past 20 years.

On September 27, 1969 he married the love of his life, the former Lauren A. Mooney in Cleveland, OH. From the 1970's until his retirement in 2000 he worked for McJunkin Corporation, as one of their top salesmen.

From his youth, Jack developed a passion for cars. In the 1960's he drag-raced professionally, while working as a mail carrier. He continued his passion for older cars throughout his life, often attending car shows with friends and family. His knowledge of cars was encyclopedic; always being able to point out even the most minor differences between models. He never hesitated to strike up a conversation about cars and boats with anybody he met.

He is survived by his wife of 51 years, Lauren A. Pavlovich of Naples, FL; 3 children, John S. Pavlovich and his wife, Melissa of Charlotte, NC, Mary Beth Mignatti and her husband, Andrew of McLean, VA, and Thomas J. Pavlovich and his wife, Jennifer of Seekonk, MA; his three sisters, Sharon Valus (Tom) of Bonita Springs, FL, Chris Laskowski of Medina, OH and Lee Nichols

(Richard) also of Medina, OH and his 9 loving grandchildren, John, Madeline, Lauren, Libby, Aidan, Aubree, Julia, Emma and Clara.

“ Dear Pavlovich Family, Eileen and I have had the pleasure of being neighbors with Lauren and Jack for several years. Jack always had a smile and greeting for us whenever we shared a driveway chat, a block party, or a discussion about his cars and mine.

He will be missed on Augusta Drive, but we will always have fond memories of our friendly and interesting neighbor. If we can help you in any way, please reach out. Jack and his beautiful family remain in our prayers.

With sincerest condolences, The Leone Family

“ Death is nothing at all- I have only slipped away into the next room. Whatever we were to each other that we are still. Call me by my old familiar name; speak to me in the easy way, which you always used to, laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together. Play, smile, think of me, and pray for me. Let my name be the household word that it always was. Let it be spoken without effort. Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was; there is absolutely unbroken continuity. Why should I be out of your mind because I am out of your sight? I am but waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near just around the corner. All is well. Nothing has passed; nothing is lost. One brief moment and all will be as it was before only better, infinitely happier and forever-we will all be one together with Christ.

“ *My sincere condolences to Lauren and the family. Jack's nuggets of information on how to save money on various purchases never ceased to amaze me. Jack, as myself, was a 1960ies hot rodder who graduated from the streets to cigarette boats on the water. We both then began collecting muscle cars which aptly recaptured the days of our misspent youth. Jack was unique and not easily forgotten and will be missed by many.
