

James L. Bradley Jr.

September 9, 1936 - April 27, 2022

James L. Bradley, Jr., 85, of Estero died unexpectedly on April 27, 2022. He was born on September 9, 1936 in Woonsocket, RI son of the late James L. Bradley, Sr. and Helen O'Leary.

After graduating, Jim joined the U.S. Navy where he became a pilot, flying off the aircraft carrier USS Randolph. Following his time with the Navy, he pursued a career in aviation that spanned several decades.

Jim married Lucille Belisle and lived in Cumberland, RI and St. Mary's, PA until his retirement. He was able to enjoy retirement at an early age, leaving St. Mary's in 1980 and moving to SW Florida for a time. They moved to Titusville, FL and eventually moved to Estero, FL permanently.

Jim is survived by his sons, Jay and Michael; grandchildren, Kasey, Lauren, Hannah, McKenzie and Max; brother, David Bradley; sister, Ann Collins and her husband, Jim; nephew, Jimmy; and nieces, Lisa and Kathy. He was preceded in death by his parents and beloved wife, Lucille and his brother, Larry.
