“ Sending prayers for comfort and peace to Jim's family. I had the pleasure of working with Jim as a member of our team here at CHS. He demonstrated true passion for the work he did and strived to improve patient care in his role. He was a delight to work with and had a contagious sense of humor that helped bond our team. Jim, we will miss you!

“ Sending our Sincere condolences and prayers to the family of Jim. Will always remember Jim for the support and patience he had with my son Joseph. Joseph and Matthew became friends in preschool and basically went through elementary-high school together. Both got their Junior Black belts in Karate together and Jim and Cheri were always there to support boys. Great memories and times together. You will be missed Jim
