“ We met Jim because he would bring communion to my parents who were home bound. He was a great source of comfort to my father as his own cancer progressed. His words were warm and his humility was genuine. We will always remember him fondly. May his family find serenity and a sense of peace knowing that Jim was a great man who honored God's plan for him.

“ Dear Janet and Jared, from the moment we met Jim 9 years ago, we could tell he adored and respected you both with all his heart.

You brought such joy, happiness and fulfillment into his life as I know he did yours.

Jim was always ready to help and did so with such a wonderful smile.

It was an honor to be included in his circle of friends as well as yours.

We live in a better world knowing Jim is guiding us from above.

“ I was foruntate enough to know Jim for the past six years and there was never a time when I saw him that he wasn't a perfect gentleman with a smile and kind words for everyone. He was truly one of the most decent men I know. He loved my dear friend, Janet, so deeply and purely, and for that he will always have a special place in my heart. I was also fortunate to be able to spend some time with Jim during his last days. Even while in the hospital and clearly suffering, he would smile at me and hold my hand. And I brought a speaker to his room and we would just sit and listen to beautiful music together. Jim, I will miss you dearly.
