“ I was very fortunate to know Jim both professionally and personally. While at Deaconess Hospital, I knew Jim from his involvement on the Board and from his friendship with Tony Woods, who was my boss. Later in my life after Deaconess, I was able to play some golf with Jim (and Tony) at various Deaconess outings and also in Florida. I especially remember our "after golf" game analysis at the Chickee Bar in Vanderbilt Beach along with my wife Tammy. While Jim might not have been a scratch golfer, he definitely enjoyed the companionship and challenge of the game. I am very saddened to hear of Jim's passing, but I know he is going to a better place.
