“ Jean was a friendly, lovely lady She loved her children and husband and always talked about . When i called her, she was always thankful for everything she had and would that she was blessed. Jean would always say how good John was as a husband and helper. Jean was courageous through her illness and a fighter. She got her strength from God who she always talked about . I know God has her safe and has told her, "well done good and faithful servant"".i will miss calling her to discuss family and of course politics Katie
