“ Jean brought joy to her family throughout her life, even as Alzheimer's disease caused her memory to fade, she kept a sweet disposition and repeated the phrases, "I love you," and "You're good." Here are the things she held dear: Jesus, her son, her husband who has been the perfect caregiver, her grandchildren and extended friends and family, butterflies, birds, chocolate crackle cookies, chicken, sweet tea, Cade's Cove in Tennessee, Chincoteague, weekend trips, her home, a beautifully set table, hymns, and flowers. But, garden slugs and houseflies did not stand a chance in her presence! Nana loved us well and left us with many memories of being loved and cared for, and we are forever grateful.
