

Jennie Critch

February 22, 1919 - December 10, 2013

Jennie Critch, 94, of Estero, FL, formally of Revere Ma., passed away peacefully December 10th 2013. She was born February 22nd, 1919, to Maria and Geralamo Veglia of Revere Ma. Jennie was married for 43 years to Richard S. Critch until his death in 1983.

Jennie is survived by her daughter, Elaine Patenaude and her husband, Joe of Estero, FL, 5 grandchildren, 7 great grandchildren and 1 great great grandchild. She was the third born of 14 children to Maria and Geralamo and is survived by 4 sisters; Natalie Daley and Eleanor Henegan of Revere, MA, Grace Daley of Wilmington, MA and Nancy Rivers of Albany, VT; 3 brothers, Alfred Veglia and Frank Veglia of West Palm Beach, FL and Victor Veglia of Medford, MA.

While residing in Revere, Jennie's working career consisted of long term jobs with Transiron Electronics Corp in East Boston, Lester Shoe Co in Chelsea, MA and the Necco Corp.

Her life was centered on her family and friends. She was known for her generosity and was always there for loved ones in need. Jennie spent hours in the kitchen cooking her famous spaghetti and meatballs for her husband, daughter, grandchildren and friends who had come to love her cooking almost as much as her.

Jennie enjoyed playing cards with her friends and spending time with her large family. During the last 20 years she was under the care of her constant companion and daughter, Elaine and son in law, Joe of Estero. For the past 8 years she was a resident of the Life Care Center of Estero.

“Nana” will be greatly missed by all her family and friends.

A funeral Mass will be held for Jenny at Our Lady of Light Church, in Estero, FL on Saturday, December 14, 2013 at 12.15 PM.

Arrangements are being handled by Shikany's Bonita Funeral Home.
