“ *I miss you so much Dad. I am glad you are at peace with Mom and the suffering has ended. I will never forget the Love you Always shared with all us kids, grandkids and great Grandkids. When I called you Always answered. I will cherish the last call, I can still hear your loving voice "I Love you Sherri". You were a great joke teller, I always had to write down the punch line! A GREAT fan of any sport especially watching us kids and the grandkids. You were always there when I really needed you. I know your with me now because I really need you! “ Jerry, one man who loved his family oh so much, and also loved life! We were neighbors there at Turtle Bay in Syracuse. Your family ALWAYS came first to you and Dorothy, and that was very evident in your daily life with them. I say thank you for all of the laughs, great smiles, and words of wisdom that you always had ready. You never met a stranger that crossed paths with you. Rest easy now, as you are with Dorothy and oh so many others. Know that you are loved from here in our house.
