“ Sending heartfelt condolences to Ron and family. I sang with Joanne in both the Marlboro Chorus and the Wayside Chorus. She was a dear friend who had a wonderful sense of humor and a caring heart. There was a whole group of us that would spend a few days every summer singing, eating, laughing and swimming on a pristine lake in Maine. My memories and the joy that Joanne brought to us will stay with me forever. Rest in peace, my friend....the heavenly chorus needs another baritone, especially one with a good sense of humor. Ron, may your many memories bring you comfort and may Joanne's memory be for a blessing.
