“ *How do we say goodbye to the one of us we all believed would be the last to go? So vital, so active, so healthy. So beautiful. We are not blessed in this life with many 40 year friends, but Joanne was that to many of us, and our grief can't be measured. So for now we have only our wonderful memories of happy times and shared challenges, Joanne was always there for both. Just pick up the phone, and Joanne was there. She will always be there, in our memories, in our albums, and mostly in our hearts. Until we meet again, dear friend, save a place at the table.
Love, love love,
Erin*

“ You will be missed and remembered by all who knew you. Your smile alone could cheer up the day. Joanne was a wonderful friend and a caring human being who donated and willingly gave of her time to others. Our cruise to Cancun with Erin O, Eddie, Caryn and friends was so much fun. Joanne kept us all laughing. She loved her children Tara and Tyson unconditionally. I will remember her always.
