“ John and Alice Cangelosi were the first couple that my husband Phil and I played golf with at Copperleaf. Phil was a newer golfer and John took him under his wing and they bonded instantly. The Italian connection was real. We played many, many rounds with John and Alice and it was always a fun, interesting dynamic. We just ran into John at Costco recently and we had the best conversation and hugs. He was a true gentleman in every sense. And, no one loved his wife, son, daughter-in-law, and grandsons more than John did. He will be sorely missed by all who knew him.

“ John was my tennis partner. We won quite often! He was quite the athlete! His whole family is! A delightful man. I will miss him.

“ When I played doubles with John as my partner, he always had a way of calming me down when I got nuts on the court. My favorite saying was "Were both going to eat dinner tonight" which would calm me down because John always had the right way to put things in perspective.

“ John was a wonderful man; he will be missed by many. I am so honored to have gotten to know him over these past two years. I'll miss playing tennis and our deep conversations about life, spirituality, and death. He brought me back to the church and for that, I will be eternally grateful; my Anam Cara.
