“ I am so very sorry to find out that Sgt Carroll had passed. I didn't know until today. John was my first squad sergeant when I arrived at the 19th precinct, back in 1981. I couldn't have wished for a better boss. Truly a kind man who was generous with his knowledge and experience. I so respected him that, even when he danced with me at my wedding, I couldn't bring myself to call him John. He was the epitome of what a Sergeant should be, the backbone of the police department. A wonderful man.

“ The epitome of a gentleman. I have the fondest memories of Uncle John. Growing up, going to Uncle John and Aunt Margie's house in East Meadow was tops on my list for family outings. He lived a great life and will be truly missed. I'm sure he's up in heaven right now swapping stories with my Dad and the rest of the Carroll crew. God Bless Aunt Margie, JP and the family. - Paul Carroll
