“ John was one of the most caring Christian man that I have known. He gave so much of himself to others asking nothing in return. I shall remember him fondly. Blessings, Al Vandam

“ John was one of the first to welcome me to First Church. He was a good friend helping me through difficult times. He helped me get into St. Matts and got a number of Jesus Calling books for others at St. Matts. John also helped me when my son Kenneth passed away three years ago.

God bless you John. We'll see each other some time.

Debbie my prayers are with you.

May Bless and strengthen you during this time.

“ John helped me buy a car from his son. That was the first time I met him. Then he gave me about four full boxes full of bibles and he told me to give them away. So I delivered a box to the local VA in Cape Coral FL. The other boxes went to a small church in Fort Myers called The Rock Fellowship who were grateful and appreciative for the generous gift. John loved the Lord, and he will be greatly missed.
