“ We moved to Florida in 1980. In our activities we met a lot people and made some nice friends. We met and became close friends with Elizabeth and John Mancini. We are very close to their beautiful family. We have been dear friends for decades and share the loss of John...

One of my many memories of John was playing Golf with him. He was a very good golfer, (not like me) and we had some great times. I remember that when we played I never could hit the ball as far as John. He always called me the BUNTER...

God Bless you John.....We will all miss you...

George and Kathy Oberndorfer.....
