Joe's successful business career began with Parke - Davis, which was acquired by Warner - Lambert, working as Vice President of Business Development when he retired.

Joe was married to his wife, Jean (Joyce), for 65 years. He is survived by his wife, Jean; 4 children, Michael (Hille), Caroline, Terri, and Cathy (Tony Petrilla); 9 grandchildren, Kirsten and Heili Carpino, Makonnen, Mahalath, Keturah, Gabriel, and Immanuelle Pongo, Lauren and Allison Petrilla; and one great-grandchild, Malakai Pongo. He also was a loving uncle to Gail, Karen, and Jill.

He enjoyed his retirement in Pelican Landing, playing golf at the Nest, and spending time with good friends.

In addition to being a wonderful husband, father, grandfather, and friend to many, Joe was a generous and kind soul to everyone who was fortunate enough to know him.

“ We have many memories of Joe dating back to 1968 when Joe and I were transferred to the home office of Parke, Davis & Co. in Detroit. We met Joe and Jean while we both were seeking a new residence in the area. From that point on we had a great relationship and developed both a really strong business relationship on my part, and an equally strong family relationship with both Joe, Jean and family. Joe was a man whom everyone greatly respected and enjoyed being around - and I mean everyone, whether within the company or anyone who came to know him. He will be greatly missed, and we wish Jean and the entire family God's Choicest Blessings.

“ My uncle and a friend as well. Joe was part of a family that was kind, generous and caring. Joe and Jean provided support and caring to so many others. I feel honored to be part of the Carpino clan.

“ I could not have worked with a finer gentleman than Joe Carpino. He was generous, considerate, kind and fun to be around. Although Joe was in Business Development and I was in the International Division, we nevertheless had many opportunities to interact, either in Hong Kong when I was based at the Asian Management Centre or in Morris Plains after we were repatriated to the States. We eventually went our separate ways, but after retirement we both found ourselves in the Bonita Springs area. My wife, Diane, and I had many enjoyable times with Joe and Jean. We were glad that we able to be with them shortly before Joe passed away. We are thankful for that last opportunity. He surely will be missed. I feel Joe will be up there somewhere swinging his driver and irons on that heavenly golf course. Double eagles to you, Joe.

“ From the time I first met Joe on a Pharmacy College class trip in 1966, he was a mentor to me. We grew together in our company with me reporting directly to him during my last six years there. I will always be grateful for his guidance, friendship and integrity. Linda and I offer our condolences to Jean and her whole family.
