“ Sorry to hear about your Dad, Father-in-Law, and GrandDad. We were very close to Uncle Joe growing up, since he was only 5 years older than my brother, Larry. He was much more like an older brother than an uncle, and we had a lot of fun. Joe and Ann built a very nice life together, and he was proud of his kids. I'm happy to have reconnected with him a bit when I was living in Boxford, and would see him at some of our mutually favorite eating spots. He'll be remembered along with his nine brothers and sisters. May he rest in peace.

One thing I'll always remember is how he could fill a room with his presence.
This must be a talent of the youngest of twelve develop.
God bless
