

Joseph Raymond Wallace

June 9, 1939 - December 2, 2021

Joseph Raymond Wallace, 82, of Estero, FL passed away on December 2, 2021 at Gulf Coast Medical Center. He was born on June 9, 1939 in New York City, NY, the son of Joseph M. and Anna M. (Arth) Wallace.

Joe married Edith L. Kruger in 1962. He attended St. John's University and earned a master's degree from New York University. In 1972, Joe relocated his family to Worthington, OH, where he lived until his retirement in 2002, when he moved to Estero, FL with Edith.

Joe is survived by his wife, Edith L. (Kruger) Wallace of Estero, FL; daughters, Ellen Wallace of Estero, FL and Jane Wallace of Washington D.C.; son, Michael (Jackie) Wallace; grandchildren, Nicholas, Bradley, and Zoe; sisters, Ellen Denué of Saint James, NY and Patricia Callahan of New Hyde Park, NY; and brother, Lawrence Wallace of Tallahassee, FL

He was preceded in death by his parents Joseph M. and Anna M. (Arth) Wallace; and sisters, Joanne Campo and Delores Dean.

A memorial service will be planned at a later time. Joe's ashes will be interred at Our Lady of Light Catholic Church Memorial Gardens on December 26 at 1:00pm.

In lieu of flowers, family requests donations to the Parkinson's Foundation.

Arrangements are being handled by Shikany's Bonita Funeral Home, Family Owned Since 1978.

“ I have so many fond memories of times spent with Edie and Joe since we all moved to FL in 2002. Dinners out, dances, pot lucks and so many other activities in Rookery. After Cliff passed, they were always there to help when I needed it. I couldn't have asked for a better friend and neighbor. My sincere sympathy to all the family. Rita Abbott
