

Joyce Conticelli

January 15, 1941 - August 7, 2023

Joyce Conticelli passed away on August 7, 2023 surrounded by her daughters and grandchildren. She was 82. Joyce was born in Brooklyn, New York to Harold and Helen Conticelli.

After graduating from high school, getting married, having children, she worked in several businesses and decided to open her own. With her love of ceramics Joyce opened and operated her business JoyLor for many years. Due to changes in life, she decided to move into insurance. After successfully passing her examinations, Joyce obtained her Insurance Agent License and over the years worked for a few different insurance agencies. Joyce was a pioneer, at the time as many woman were not working in the insurance industry and even fewer were licensed insurance agents. She gave back to the community by being active and supporting the Salvation Army and Red Cross. She also was a member of Business Professional Woman Association (BPW), Rotarian and Notary. Joyce traveled to Italy to visit family and was the first woman Rotarian to attend a Rotary meeting in the town where her family lived.

As accomplished as Joyce was as business woman, her legacy will be her family. A single parent she raised two remarkable daughters, who she is survived by, Karyn (Thomas) Carlson and Lynda Mastronardo (George S. Howell, III). She also leaves behind the center of her world her grandchildren,

Kaitlyn Carlson and G. Sarde Howell, IV to them she was Mema, being one of Kaitlyn's first words; also survived by her brother Robert G. Conticelli.

The family will honor Joyce's life in New Jersey with due notice of place and time given.

Arrangements are being handled by Shikany's Bonita Funeral Home Family Owned and Operated Since 1978.

Tribute Wall

“ Joyce Conticelli

October 09, 2023 at 03:40 AM