“ My fondest memory of Juanita was on her wedding day. I had shown up early to help out with her hair and when I walked into the room and saw her, I was overcome by emotion. She was so beautiful and about to marry love of her life- I was thrilled for her and cried tears of happiness. Doug is the love of her life and I'm so happy she was loved just as much. I will miss her hugs and genuine spirit. We gained another guardian angel to watch over us along with her father, Mr. Olivero. Until we see each other again, rest easy Juanita. I love you!

“ Aunt Juanita was a wonderful person and aunt. My favorite memory of Aunt Juanita was when I was 5 yrs of age and she lived with us. Her sister Melinda and I was at a public playground and got ganged up by a group of kids who started beating us up. We went home crying and she was furious. She liked us in the car and grabbed her shot gun. She drove to the park and told the kids if they ever did that again she would shoot ever single one of them. Haha
