“ I am Sharon, a first cousin of Keith. Lillian was my dad's sister. Robert Jacob Getz truly adored his little sister. Keith was the cutest, most mischievous little boy. He was Grandma Anna Getz's favorite grandchild, he brought her such pleasure. Being 18 years older I recall him teasing older girls, flirting and a charmer. I also recall him offering to repair damage to my van if I could leave it in Janesville. He was a beautiful child and recently we briefly reconnected after Brad passed away. My sympathy and prayers for his family in this loss. Hugs.
