“ Our beautiful daughter, Carrie, married into the Kingon family and now WE have been welcomed into the family as well! I cannot even begin to pay tribute to Ken Sr. without talking about Ann as well! They had a true partnership and a deep commitment to each other which was so apparent in the loving care Ann gave to Ken each and every day in his brave struggle with cancer. He had unbelievable quiet strength!

A memory to share:

When Hurricane Irma threatened us in Naples, we left not knowing where we could go to be safe. Ken and Ann, without a moment's hesitation, said come to our place in North Carolina! We went and we were there for a couple weeks! Ken Jr. has inherited his Father's huge heart and generous spirit.

My husband and I feel very blessed to be included in the Kingon family circle.

May you rest easy now Ken and know that you have had a life well lived! God Bless!

“ What sad news to hear of Ken's passing. The soul of Gateway, which has been my livelihood for thirty years, was built by Ken and Ann Kingon. They were a perfect team, as he was a perfect gentlemen. Ken you will be missed, however I will be reminded of you daily as I drive the streets of the early phases of Gateway. God be with Ann and your entire family.

Thank you Denny for the nice words and memories about Dad. I can remember over 30 years ago when the only homes in Gateway were a few model homes on Mahogany Run.

*Ann,
It was with deep regret that I heard of the passing of sweet Ken, what a gentle person he was. It had been a pleasure to deal with you both twice in Gateway. If I can help you with anything, do not hesitate to call me. Again, my deepest sympathy to you and your entire family.
Sincerely*

“ Dad was an encourager, he believed in building people up, focusing on their strengths and teaching them in a loving way. That's coming from someone who had firsthand experience with this throughout my life and benefited greatly from it! Thank you Dad, for being a man that followed the Lord and practiced what you preached!!! Love and miss you!!!
