“ I am so sad you are gone. You definitely fought the good fight for a long hard road. It was heart breaking to watch but I am so glad there is no more pain. You have earned your wings sweet friend.

Thank you for giving me such wonderful memories; skateworld four nights a week, boogie bounces, drive ins, drag racing, underage drinking and partying, school lunches at speedway and cork n bottle, smoking area antics, school projects, note passing, guy watching, music singing, olds cutlass driving, laughing till we cried! . You were the best friend a girl could ask for ❤️

I admire the beautiful family you created, what an incredible legacy! Your wonderful children, and grand children. May you live on through them!

Till next we meet, I can see you now in heaven with your eyes big as saucers, jaw dropped repeating “wow” over and over. Best “trip” you’ll ever have. 😊
