December 23, 1941 - September 29, 2025

Lucien Albert Salvant, Jr.

December 23, 1941 – September 29, 2025

Lucien Albert Salvant, Jr., 83, of Bonita Springs, Florida, passed away on September 29, 2025.

Born on December 23, 1941, in New Orleans, Louisiana, he was the son of the late Lucien Albert Salvant, Sr. and Anna Geraci Salvant.

Lucien was a proud New Orleanian who dedicated his life to education and journalism. He earned his undergraduate degree from Loyola University and went on to receive a master's degree in Journalism from Louisiana State University. His career reflected a lifelong passion for writing, communication, and mentorship. Along with his great accomplishments in journalism, Lucien proudly served his country as a sergeant in Army Intelligence during the Vietnam War.

Lucien served as Editor-in-Chief for the National Association of Realtors Magazine in Washington D.C., where his leadership, professionalism, and commitment to excellence made a lasting impact. He retired to Bonita Springs in 2011.

Lucien was preceded in death by his parents and his brothers, Joseph and Paul Salvant. He is survived by his loving family: niece Leah Quay and her husband Jason, and their children Hannah, Nathaniel, Zoe, and Timothy; niece Rachel Salvant and her children; Steven Salvant and his wife Marlene; and Cory Jones, along with many great-nieces and great-nephews who will cherish his memory.

A service to celebrate Lucien's life will take place at Shikany's Bonita Funeral Home on Tuesday, December 2, 2025, at 11:00 AM.
