“ Walking into Megan's office at Conservancy of Southwest Florida was always a treat. She always had that beautiful smile and we would share dog stories, different recipes and new wines we found. Megan was smart and always helpful when I needed finance reports for the marketing department. While we lost touch over the past several years, I will always have these fond memories of her in my heart forever. The world is a more lonely place without her and her bright smile.

“Megan and i had a great friendship while working together at the conservancy for over 7 years. There were so many great times we shared. I remember her doing the ms walk with me and a few other co workers 3 years in a row. Working with her was a real joy and I've missed her so much since we moved to north Carolina. She will be so missed. She's a very dedicated worker and friend. Love you Megan.

“There are many things that I will miss about Megan Dardis. If not for Miss Megan, I would not be the cook that I am today. If not for Mr Tom, I wouldn't be able to use a grill. Year after year after year, we tested new dishes, recipes and wines. Then settled down to a good old evening of Survivor or American Idol or The Voice. I will miss the short wit Megan had when telling a joke and then her laughing smile. She is with her maker now and in no pain. She will always be remembered and missed. Rest In Peace Miss Megan.

I was shocked and saddened to see Megan's obituary today. A class act with brains and a wonderful knack for throwing a good party. I worked with her for a number of years in the business office of Yamron Jewelers on Broad Ave South. And attended great festivities with her and her sweetheart of a husband Tom. So very sorry to hear this. K Larsen
