“ Growing up, Peggy was a wonderful big sister. I cherish the memories of vacationing with Peg and Bill in Vermont, Rhode Island and Cape Cod. I would always pop-in and surprise her in South Windsor and she always was excited to see me and spend time with me. She never got upset when I brought friends with me! We'd always have good time together with lots of laughter. I would teasingly call her "Maggie"; a nickname she did not like but she would retaliate by calling me "James"! My solace in her passing is that she's with our parents, brother, sisters and her son John. Love you Peggy, RIP!
