September 15, 1944 - March 23, 2019

Marguerite E. Antosca, of Bonita Springs, Florida, passed away March 23, 2019 at the age of 74.

Margie, as she was known to the many who loved her, was born in Mansfield, MA to Francis and Rose Antosca. She was the youngest of four children. She graduated Mansfield High School in 1962 and went on to complete a BA in English Literature from Northeastern University and later a nursing degree from Boston State College. She spent several years as a nurse at New England Deaconess Hospital before transitioning into hospital administration and compliance at the Brigham Medical Group and Brigham-Beth Israel Surgical Group.

Margie had an adventuresome spirit and loved to travel, to spend time with her loved ones, and to enjoy the arts. She adored music, literature, and the theater and spent a great deal of time sharing her passion for the arts with her adoring nieces and nephews. She was a devoted and fiercely loyal friend and loving aunt.

She is survived by her brother, Francis Antosca and his wife Deborah; and her doting nieces and nephews: Linda Neily (Phil), Karen Ingram (Jim), Pamela Podvin (Dan); James M. Antosca; John Antosca (Mario); and Dorothy Hunt (David) as well as their children and grand children. Her encouragement, humor, intellectual curiosity, and unconditional love has left an indelible mark on the hearts of all who loved her. She was the apple of their eye.

“ I first met Marge in 1971. She was a secretary in Northeastern's College of Business Administration and I was an MBA intern in her office. She was great! We worked in the same office for several years. She even went with me to pick out furniture and accessories for my new apartment, and we still use some of that furniture . She had great taste. My wife and I loved her. She was so much fun and wonderful to work with. So sorry to hear of her passing. It sounds like she had a full life. We're sorry for your loss. Bric Wheeler
