“ Peggy was like a mom to me. I miss her sooo very much. I knew she was there for me anytime I needed her. We had a lot of fun times doing Real Estate together since 1998. We enjoyed laughing together. I will miss her sweet smile.

“ Peggy was a sweet, kind and hilarious woman. She was a dear friend to my mother Dorothy but but was of course a 'second love' of my father Bob as well. Peggy was the kind that always made you feel good about yourself and always made you laugh. Although she lived in a different country and I only saw her maybe once a year, I felt like she was a family member. I know she will be dearly missed by all who knew her but I am sure she is happy with her long lost loved ones now.

Much love, Debbie Torella and family ox
