“ Although I married into the Rehn clan all the Swanson families made me one of the gang. Marvin and my husband Wayne had such a great laugh whenever we were together. Marvin and Wayne will definitely bring laughs to all in heaven. My sympathy to you all. Jean Rehn

“ I am so sad to have just read that Marvin passed away. I met Marvin and Mrs. Swanson when Lynette became my student at Cambridge Elementary. Later I would be fortunate to also have Brenda as a student. Mr. and Mrs. Swanson were always so supportive and always stopped to visit whenever we happened to meet, after the girls had grown. The Swanson family hold a dear place in my heart and I treasure the wonderful memories we created together. My sincerest sympathies to Mrs. Swanson, Lynette, Brenda and their families. Mr. Swanson was a wonderful role model for all fathers to follow. May GOD BE WITH HIM AND WITH EACH OF YOU ALWAYS AND IN ALL WAYS.

“ A. Zeretta sorry I haven't been home until now to tell how much he will be missed. He was very special to me. I will never forget when he told me that my hair was to short because he didn't like to see womens ears. I have kept my ears covered ever since because I wanted to honor his wish. You have my sympathy. Diane and Butch

“ Thinking of you all (Aunt Zerretta, Lynnette, Brenda and families), and hope you know how much you are in our prayers. Jerry and I are so happy we got to spend some time with Uncle Marv in January, when he seemed to be doing so well and certainly still had his sense of humor. Our love and sympathy to all of you.

“ Uncle Marvin I have many happy memories of you. Like all those times on vacation to the ozarks in Missouri. I don't know how many quarters you gave me to play video games in the game room at the hotels we stayed at. Then there was the time I was 6 yrs old and you and Aunt Zerreta caught me operating the elevator at the holiday inn , you asked me do your parents know your doing this and my response was this is my last trip!!! R.I.P. Uncle Marvin I love you.
