

Mary C. Waller

December 15, 1935 - April 29, 2025

Mary C. Waller, age 89, of Bonita Springs, FL, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, April 29, 2025 at American House – Coconut Point.

Born December 15, 1935, in Hackleburg, AL, Mary was the daughter of the late Charlie T. and Lurla G. (Murphy) Waller. She moved to Bonita Springs in 1995 from the Cleveland, Ohio area, and quickly became a beloved part of the local community.

Mary built her career as a skilled butcher with Kroger Supermarket, where she was known for her work ethic and dedication. Outside of work, she was an avid reader and a passionate cook who found joy in preparing meals and sharing them with her family and friends. She was a devoted member of New Life Church and lived her faith through kindness, generosity, and service to others.

Mary cherished her time with family and found great happiness in lunches, dinners, and conversations with dear friends. She leaves behind many who will remember her for her warmth, strength, and sense of humor.

She was mama to Sebrina M. Swansegar of Bonita Springs, FL and Richard Swansegar (Jaime) of Northfield, OH; Mary is also survived by her brother, Doug Grissom of Hackleburg, AL; and her great grandson, James Swansegar.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Columbus Waller; her son, Richard Waller; her daughter, Sherry Swansegar; and her brothers, Charles Grissom and Jerry Grissom.

Private funeral services will be held.
