“ Maxine was special in my heart, she called me her grandson to everyone she introduced me to even though I'm not related except through marrying her granddaughter Cathy. I first met Maxine at Debbie and Jeffs wedding, we even had a beer together. She was so sweet and loved visiting her in Bonita Springs when we visited her with Cathys parents. The pic of her and her granddaughter Cathy was when we flew in for her for her 100th Birthday. She will be missed and so thankful for the relationship we had together.

“ This is worthy of being added to Mom's webpage., It's a note from my late cousin, Carolyn Sue DeLong Hess who loved Mom dearly, and vice versa.

Written March 12, 2016,

"Dear Auntie Mac, I hope this finds you well. There's no doubt you are one of the strongest women I know Now, I know you can't carry heavy things; I am referring to your inner YOU. If I were asked to give my opinion about you, I would, without hesitation, say, "She is gracious, loving, kind, appreciative, a woman who walks in faith. She acknowledges the Lord in her life. A wonderful woman I'm proud to call "MY AUNTIE MAC." I love you, Carolyn Sue (She enclosed a smiling picture of herself and wrote the note on a hand-colored card which said, "I colored this card all by myself just for you.". Carolyn went to Heaven on October 24, 2016, after a valiant battle against cancer. She was a beautiful person inside and out.)

“ Maxine was a long time friend and neighbor to me. We met in 1978 when I moved onto Norris Dr. We weathered some storms in both our lives which probably strengthened our bond. We had lots of fun when she would accompany me as I made inspections throughout the seven Ohio counties. That friendship was able to continue after we both moved to opposite Florida coasts. I feel fortunate to have had her as long as I did and I know that her passing leaves a void in us as it increases her peace.

“ Maxine was a dear and long-time friend to my mother, Evelyn Palmore. Mom will miss speaking to her on the telephone. I remember going with Mom to Maxine's 90th birthday party here in Columbus held at her daughter's home in north Columbus. She was such a sweet person. Mom will miss writing letters to her.

Dee--, Evelyn is a special friend and meant a lot to Mom and she still does to me, as do you and your family. I drove her out to your father's grave once and you would have thought I had given her "the moon", she was so grateful. Mom And she was so thoughtful to keep us supplied in Avon products. I wish all of you many healthy, happy days ahead.
