“ From the first moment Nancy opened the door to what would soon be our new home, we fell in love with this spirited woman. She had a catching smile, quick mind and sparkling sprit that somehow portrayed, “Anything is possible!” Even her photos from childhood had a twinkle in her eyes of, “Just watch what I can do!”

In her own style of being compassionate, Nancy was very kind and generous to us in making it workable to move into our new home that was once hers.

As time went on, we began to really know and care for this amazing woman through personally hearing stories about her life without limitations and the adventures along the way. She became an inspiration. We approached life very differently, although somehow we understood and appreciated each other. Three years went too quickly, although we are eternally grateful for the time and gift of Nancy in our lives. We will deeply miss her.
