“ Sorry to hear of my cousin Nancy's passing. She is forever remembered in our hearts. It's Ironic that just last Friday night I was out with my sister and brother in law Dottie & Mike and we were reminiscing about Nancy and then to hear that she passed just the next day kind of gave me chills. Hopefully she's in a better place now.

“ It started when I was born. Nancy was the sister that spoiled me. She bought me clothes, gave me money to go to the movies, even to take dance lessons. She let me use her car and boat. Even gave me money for the gas. She helped me all of my life. Rest in peace dear sister. I will miss you but have you in my heart always.

Deepest condolences to the family. I remember all the fun times we had at Pearl Lake, and marveled at the Conklin's water skiing abilities. And oh those steps to the lake! Rip Nancy “ Nancy "Sugar Lips" you were the sweetest StepMom. You were loving, kind, compassionate, and one energetic little bundle of sweetness. Your heart welcomed all into your home and your life, and you made such a difference in everyones life. You were more than a friend to your friends, and neighbors because you treated everyone like family, like they matter and they belong.

You were one strong, independent, hard working, and determined little lady who didn't know the word No.

Nancy you were always caring, giving, sharing, and helpful to everyone. You were warm and soft to those who hurt and empathic and giving to those in need.

Nancy you were grateful and thankful for everything and everyone. Even the sun and the rain. Your sweet nature rubbed off on others. You made a difference in our lives. You touched out hearts with determination to move onwards and upwards.

Nancy you loved God, your family and your friends and you put others before yourself. Your willingness to live a full life strengthened us to do the same.

You are not forgotten, you left imprints in our hearts, and loving memories we have will always make us smile and laugh. We are all blessed to have you in our hearts Nancy. We loved your sweet sweet personality. Your genuine heart and kindness blessed us all. You were a wonderful StepMom Nanc! Sugar Lips You are in our hearts forever!
