“ Almost all of my memories of Jeane seem to be centered around the word "fun." One of my favorites goes back many years to when my brother Barry and I were teenagers and Jeane was in her twenties. She had gotten a new little sports car which she parked in our driveway while she visited Mom and Dad. My brother and a few of the neighborhood teens picked her car up and carried it around to the back of our yard where it was out of sight. I remember that Jeane tried to act upset once she discovered what they had done, but the laughter overtook her! She was a gift to all who knew her.

“My best beach buddy ever! I remember the first time I came to visit you and Mike in Florida. The next morning you took me to your Bonita Beach and I was in love! We walked for hours and Jeane laughed when I started picking up shells. She told me to wait because we hadn't even got to the good ones yet. It didn't matter if we were walking, swimming or reading on the beach, it was beautiful time with you. I loved when my Aunt Jeane would tell me stories of the trips my parents, Doc and Arlene walked the same beaches we were on. I loved when you took me to Sanibel Island! And then we went home and Uncle Mike laughed at me with all my shells but got me a bucket with water and bleach so the raccoons wouldn't steal my shells! And I will never forget how Jeanne and Mike came and rescued me in Miami when I was there alone trying to arrange my first mother's funeral alone. I could never have been able to do what needed done without their loving arms and support. Aunt Jeane was a beautiful, classy and the most kind hearted angel here in life, you will fit right in up in heaven. Love you forever, Connie your loving niece.
