“ I remember the first day I got to meet you...I knew then that you where a blessing...You provided hope, love, and brought so many people joy. You were one of the most handsome little buddies I'd ever seen. I know that all things in this life contain purpose. Being a part of all the lives of those who cherished you was meant to be...God must have had a bigger plan for you back home though...As hard as it is for all of us still here to handle or, accept, we will try our best to continue the path as, we all know that it is what you would have wanted from us...I will miss your precious smile till I get to see you again in heaven. Till then, you are forever with all of us in our hearts...Thank you for being a part of my life Nate...Fly fast and high lil buddy...We will love you forever and always...❤️

“ Nate nate was such a beautiful blessing in our family's life. I remember being so excited to do the gender reveal party for my sis and brother. When we found out it was a boy everyone was so happy. Me having my son so close in age I was glad he'd have a little boy cousin to play with. In the short time we had with him was a true blessing because he impacted so many people with his great big heart. Nathan will always be with us, he found his peace. Till we meet again.. titi Sarah and isaiah love you

I was away when this sad event occurred and just learned of this. I'm heartbroken and I'm so grateful to have met your sweet boy. I'm sad in which our lives in paths crossed but grateful for the opportunity to be a part of your baby's journey. I hope one day your heart will heal in some way. Sending prayers of healing love and peace of mind.
