

Nessa Bridget O'Toole

February 1, 1940 - April 12, 2024

Nessa Bridget (Devlin) O'Toole passed away peacefully on April 12, 2024 in Bonita Springs, Florida. Nessa was born on February 1, 1940 to Sarah (Quinn) and Joseph Devlin in County Tyrone, Northern Ireland. She was the proud sister of nine siblings and many nieces and nephews.

In the early 1960s, Nessa moved to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to live with her Aunt Margaret before settling in the Bronx, New York where she soon met Patrick O'Toole. The couple married in October 1962 and in July 1963, they welcomed their son Brian. Nessa enjoyed her work as a health care benefits administrator which brought her to Farmington Hills, Michigan where she would live until moving to Bonita Springs to in 2011.

On any given day Nessa could be found drinking a cup of tea while on the phone with family and friends catching up on the events of their lives.

She is survived by her siblings, Vincent Devlin of County Tyrone, N. Ireland; and Joseph Devlin, of County Mayo, Republic of Ireland; her son, Brian and daughter-in-law Laura; and granddaughter, Allison and her husband Douglas. She is preceded in death by her husband, Patrick, as well as her parents, sisters (Elizabeth Rea, Margaret Hamilton, Norah Devlin and Rosaline Burke), her brothers (Brendan, Patsy, and Dermot Devlin), and her granddaughter, Katherine.

Nessa was passionate about charitable causes. If you would like to give a gift in her memory, contributions may be directed to Misericordia Home, 6300 North Ridge, Chicago, IL 60660.

Arrangements are being handled by Shikany's Bonita Funeral Home, Family Owned Since 1978.
