“ I was pregnant when we moved in next door. While on maternity leave, Norma stopped by daily to check on me. Sometimes she would bring a bag of grapefruit, other times papayas. One day she brought a baby blanket and matching cap that she had crocheted for our new son.

I was so thankful for her visits and enjoyed her company and conversation. Norma was such a sweet lady. I am so very sorry for your family's loss.

With much sympathy,

“ From the day we moved in next door, we were welcomed into your lives not just as neighbors but as family. There isn't enough that we can say about Norma or any of you. We hope you know how much you are loved. Every memory we choose has all of you in it and brings a smile and warms our hearts. Her smile, kindness, and humor will always be remembered. We are here for you just as all of you have been there for us. We are going to miss Norma greatly but we know she will be watching over all of us. Until we meet again, Norma 💕💕

“ There are no words that can ever really encompass what Norma meant to us. When we moved in next door to Norma and Mike in 1991, we quickly knew we would some day be more than just neighbors, we would be family, and we would share all of the ups and downs of life together. Since I was just 5 years old then, I have very few memories of my life without Norma in them, and I'm so grateful for that. I'm thankful for the fact that I got to share her as a mother, because that's exactly what she felt like to me. She was there for every single important moment and every celebration, and loved my babies as much as she loved us. My life was greatly influenced by her generous, humorous spirit and she will leave a hole in my heart that will never be filled. To everyone who was touched by her love, we share in your pain, and we are comforted by the fact that she is finally at peace but we will miss her and her smile every single day. We love you Norma.
