

Patrice Marie Freier

December 21, 1960 - December 11, 2016

Patrice Marie Freier (55) of Largo, Florida died Sunday, December 11, 2016 at her parents', Duane and Nancy Freier, home in Bonita Springs, Florida. Patrice was born at Boston Lying-In Hospital in Massachusetts on December 21, 1960 and was just ten days from celebrating her 56th birthday.

Patrice spent most of her childhood years in Ann Arbor, Michigan before moving to the Tampa Bay area in 1981 where she lived until her diagnosis of esophageal cancer in the spring of 2014.

Patrice graduated from Pioneer High School in Ann Arbor, Michigan in 1979 and attended Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo prior to taking her extended "spring break" in Clearwater, Florida where she fell in love with the sun-filled culture and weather.

Patrice worked as a waitress and bartender in many great establishments in the Tampa Bay region, most recently at Wildflower Cafe in Clearwater. Being surrounded by good friends and good times were central to Patrice's full and active life. She enjoyed cooking, reading, Jazzercise, shopping, country music, and her adorable dachshund puppy dogs. Patrice loved to laugh and had an infectious, wonderful smile that brightened a room.

Patrice is survived by her caring father, Dr. Duane T. Freier and mother, Nancy C. Freier, of Bonita Springs; her sister Renee L. Freier, her husband David L.

Tiemann, and their children Sydney and Blake Tiemann of Seattle, Washington; and her youngest sister Michele F. Klein, her husband Steven M. Klein, and their children Jared and Madelyn of Framingham, Massachusetts; and many, many loving friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Patrice Marie Freier

October 09, 2023 at 03:40 AM