“ One of the rarest, kindest, most beautiful and loving soul I've met. Never will I forget you and the memories you have left us with. Gonna miss that glow in your eyes whenever you spoke of your grandkids. The moments will forever hold a special place in my heart as so will you!

“ This is the memory that is the fondest and one that I hold closest to me when it gets rough. I took the day off just to take mom, Tori and William to the park where we road the train that takes you around the little village. She was whooping and “whoop-whoop”ing the whole time to try and get William to smile. I remember also her waving and saying “hi” to every person we passed. Typical of my mom. 😊 This was only a couple weeks ago. I am so grateful for having taken that time to be with her that day.
