Patricia Wade Hall, born April 30, 1933 in Washington, D.C. She passed away on April 7, 2014 in Naples Florida. She is survived by her husband Bob her son Robert (Tad) and his wife Brenda Hall, her daughters Mari-Kate and Julie Ann Orsini. She also is survived by her three Grandchildren: Dustin Hall, Mark Schultz and Megan Geist and Great Grand children Zoe Hall, Piper Geist and Cruz Hall. She was preceded in her death by her youngest Son Christopher and her Grandson Robert 3rd (Robbie)

Patsy grew up in the Edgewood Playground area of North East Washington and attended Notre Dame Academy in Washington D.C. She attended George Washington University and later worked as an executive secretary for a steamship brokerage company.

Before moving to Florida, she lived in Beltsville, Maryland, Aurora Colorado and Severna Park, Maryland. In addition to raising four children in Maryland and later Colorado, Patsy volunteered for numerous church functions, participated in a program of visiting life term prisoners, managed the retail outlet of a special needs children's program, managed a community pool with over 500 members and worked as an executive secretary to the Comptroller of a large electronic company in Annapolis, Md.

In her spare time she learned to play golf and could hit a four wood from the fairway as well as anyone....she was an avid tennis player and later in life enjoyed playing MahJongg.

Patsy also provided loving care to Bob's Father, her Mother and Aunt all who had lengthy illnesses.

Patsy and Bob moved to Bonita Springs Florida on a full time basis in 1998 where they enjoyed their retirement continuing to play tennis, Mahjongg, travel and enjoy the retirement life in SW Florida.

“ Patsy: unique, for her wit, her bluntness, her kind, kind soul, and sayings that are absolutely hers alone. "well, that's just it- -..."...Recommendations, too---for books, tv shows, games to make your day brighter, from MahJongg to Euchre and beyond..Every restaurant you could ever imagine you might try!. "I can wear whatever I want, cause at 80, who cares?" Her fragrance.."Casual." And it will always be her fragrance. "No I don't cook any more--- been there, done that." How about light-up eyeglasses? Could there be a friend with more innate fun? How could such a small person be so much larger than life? And if you ever got to watch Patsy dance, you'd remember it always. One. Only. Unforgettable. I am glad that she was my friend...and she will be.

To her family, love, prayers, blessings. To the friends we all shared her with, love, prayers, and memories of joy.
