“ Pat would kindly send me friendship cards throughout our friendship 1978-1988. During high school days, when we were 18, we would often find one another while we attended bars, we'd dance, drink and have great fun at Uncle Sam's and like local hangouts. Pat role played for Lynne S once, when she wanted to make her now husband Howie jealous...Pat allowed for his t-shirt to be torn into bits while we were on the dance floor as a group of crazy teens!

Pat's friendship cards sent to me while we were in college & beyond, were kind & usually cute or funny cards with a personal message & well wishes. Always a pleasant surprise to receive. ❤️🕊️

Later after college, Pat managed to get my phone number when I moved from Lancaster, New York to Houston, Texas in 1986. Back in the day when phone calls came from landlines!

It was fabulous to hear from Pat! He said he had heard that I married in 1984, but that he wouldn't recognize the union until he could meet my husband...adding "I need to know he's a good man and will treat you right before I give you my blessings". ❤️

Always looking out for others he was!

So glad Pat attended the Lancaster HS reunions when possible, it was always a great opportunity to spend quality time with a wonderful individual!

Pat will be greatly missed by many!

RIP

Condolences to family & friends of Pat ❤️ The pain of the loss never leaves us, it morphs into something somewhat more manageable over time. It's okay to not feel okay with the loss of a loved one. The best medicine for grief is ❤️ Of family, friends & neighbors. Reach out to loved ones or a counselor for assistance with grief & loss.

Hugs ❤️

“ Pat was a unique character, a one of a kind precious human being! Caring, kind, funny, intelligent, dedicated to friends like no other I’ve ever met!

When Pat entered my life through his boyhood friend Howie Hein. Pat provided incredible moral support to Howie when Howie’s sister Heather passed away. It was Pat’s innate character trait to show empathy & love for others. Pat was generous with his time, antics, pro-like tennis tips and his gestures of loving friendship were ever strong!

Pat will be missed by many, myself included. Pat didn’t deserve to have Covid deprive him of living a long life. Covid sucks!!

My heartfelt condolences to Pat’s family, friends & acquaintances. Sending hugs & well wishes for all to find peace with this insurmountable loss of one remarkable human being’
