“ About Paul,

Paul was a guy who sorted out the real world from the faux one. As such, he was a joy to have as a friend. We will never forget his insightful sense of humor that was a learning experience. We will always miss him, but are comforted knowing he has gone on to an even better place.

“ Perhaps they are not stars, but rather openings in heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know they are happy.

*....We will miss you my friend. You were a great husband, father and friend. I will always treasure and remember the times we spent together...and miss you. Your heart and laughter I will never forget.
